International Collaboration Policy

Bellande Entities hereby declare and affirm that:

1. Open International Collaboration: Bellande Entities maintain the right and capability to collaborate with researchers, scientists, institutions, and organizations of any nationality, without restriction based on geographic location or national origin.
2. Research Independence: All research activities, projects, and collaborations undertaken by Bellande Entities are conducted as independent scientific endeavors. Such research is not associated with, sponsored by, or representative of any specific country, government, or national agenda.
3. Academic and Scientific Freedom: Bellande Entities operate under the principles of academic freedom and open scientific inquiry, transcending national boundaries in the pursuit of knowledge and innovation.

Intellectual Property Framework

Regarding ownership and rights to innovations, discoveries, and work products:

1. Collaborative Ownership: All innovations, discoveries, research outcomes, intellectual property, and work products resulting from collaborative efforts shall be the full property of the stated collaborators as explicitly agreed upon at the commencement of each collaboration.
2. Assignment to Bellande Entities: Where collaborators specifically designate or assign their rights, innovations and work products may become the property of Bellande Entities, subject to written agreement and mutual consent.
3. Clear Attribution: All collaborative work shall maintain clear documentation of contributor roles, history, ownership structures, and intellectual property assignments as agreed upon by all parties involved.

Legal Framework

This declaration operates under the following principles:

- Private Entity Status: Bellande Entities function as private research organizations with the autonomy to establish international partnerships and collaborations.
- Contractual Basis: All specific collaborations shall be governed by individual agreements that detail the terms, scope, and intellectual property arrangements for each project.
- Compliance: All activities shall be conducted in compliance with applicable international research standards and relevant legal frameworks.

Effective Date and Scope

This declaration is effective immediately and applies to all past, current and future research collaborations undertaken by Bellande Entities. This document serves as a foundational policy statement and may be referenced in specific collaboration agreements.
